

I strongly oppose NAB's petition 04-160 because I believe it harms the public for little more than special interest profits. Why can't the free market determine the best radio system? What public good could possibly be served by limiting the availability of a product to entrenched interests? That is anti-competitive and can only result in less choice for consumers. I strongly oppose this measure, and any other that limits consumer choices to protect special interests.